When I Think of Christmas

Roger Emerson

Gentle Ballad ♩ = 88

Voice

When I think of Christ-mas and the joy of life a-new, when I think of Christ-mas and the years that we have shared, when I think___ of Christ-mas___ my thoughts re-turn to you. When I think of think___ of Christ-mas___ this is my hum-ble prayer: Make the time for giv-ing and the joy that comes to be, when I think___ of giv-ing___ and giv-ing and the joy that it can bring, Let us all___ be grate-ful___ and all it means to me. It's the gold and in-cense and the life that nev-er with our hearts now sing: Bring your gold and in-cense and your joy that nev-er ends. Ten-der warmth that comes from friend-ship and a love for all that mends. ends. Bring your warmth and last-ing friend-ship and your love for all that___

When I mends. Bring your gold and in-cense and your joy that nev-er ends. Bring your warmth and last-ing friend-ship and your love for all that mends.

rit.

Slowly, gently

When I think of Christ-mas and the joy of life a - new, when I think of Christ - mas my thoughts re - turn to you.